

Newsletter 12th January 2022

Dear Parents,/ Carers,

Welcome back everyone, 2022 will be an exciting year for Knowsley. Knowsley is Liverpool City Region's Borough of Culture. I will share information about events taking place throughout the year in future newsletters. Please read the letter from Councillor Harvey on the school website.
Miss Hegarty

2022 Knowsley's year as Liverpool City Region's Borough of Culture

Here's a recent example of some fantastic BBC coverage

Knowsley will be catapulted into the limelight at the start of the year with 'A New Dawn', a programme of events and light installations across the borough. Other highlights of the year include:

- The opening of The Shakespeare North Playhouse
 - The Owl and the Pussy-cat sculpture trail
 - The return of the Knowsley Flower Show and Feelgood Festival
 - A mass participation Sporting Heroes Relay event celebrating sport
 - A 'National Masterpiece Degas' painting and drawings from the Ashmolean by world renowned artists Degas, Renoir and Cezanne.
 - Exclusive performances of the award-winning plays from the BBC's The One Show 'As You Write It' competition
- An exhibition of work from Sir Quentin Blake – renowned children's illustrator

And there is more to be announced!

A new website will keep you updated: www.cultureknowsley.co.uk so please check that out as well as liking, sharing and engaging with us on Facebook, Instagram and Twitter by following @cultureknowsley. Follow Us

Also, why not enjoy the programme yourself and bring your friends and family to 'A New Dawn' – you can find out more here (some are ticketed so book your tickets now) <https://www.cultureknowsley.co.uk/a-new-dawn/>
If you haven't seen it already you might like to watch and share the following video which has some familiar faces in it!
